

The Storie of the prophete Jonas.
The first Chapter.

The worde of the lord came vñ to the prophete Jonas y sonne of Amithai sayenge: ryse & gett the to Ninive that greate citie & preach vñ to the / how that theyr wekednesse is come vpp before me.

And Jonas made hi ready to fle to Tharsis frō the presens of y lord / & gatt hym downe to Joppe / and founde there a sheppe ready to goo to Tharsis / & payed his fare / & wēt aborde / to goo with them to Tharsis frō the presens of the lord.

But y lord hurled a greate winde in to y se / so that there was a myghtie tēpest in the se : in so moch y the shepp was lyke to goo in peces. And the mariners were afrayed & cried euery man vñ to his god / & cast out y goodes y were in y sheppe in to y se / to lighten it of the. But Jonas gatt him vnder the hatches & layed him downe and slembrede. And y master of the sheppe came to him & sayd vñ to hi / why slembereest thou? vpp / & call vñ to thy god / that God mape thinke on vs / that we perish not.
